DEDICATION

TO OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Thou hast come, O loving Mother,
And didst rest upon a tree.
Deign to hear the humble praises
We Thy children sing to Thee.

Noonday brightness saw Thy coming
While the children said their beads.
In Thy mercy, Virgin Mary,
Be our help in these dire needs.

Ave, Ave, Ave, Mother of the Lord,
Ave, Ave, we all say of one accord.

To the Blessed Virgin Mary, we, the Senior Class of 1951, wish to dedicate this sixth edition of the Marian. Mary has been our model and patroness all through our school years, and it is certain she will be all through our lives.

We, the Marian staff, wish to thank our spiritual directors, the priests, the Sisters of St. Joseph who have taught us, and the alumni who have given us the traditions of St. Mary's. We also wish to thank our fellow classmates who have shared our school years and the underclassmen with whom we leave the traditions of St. Mary's in perfect confidence.

MARIAN CO-EDITORS
Kathleen McKee and Ted Lacina take time out.

Business managers John Deruy, Dona Zueck, and Lois Oberley, with yearbook sponsor Sister Paula and the co-editors, find some pictures in the 1948 annual of the present staff members.

Staff hard at work trying to meet the deadline.

Compliments of PURITAN DAIRY

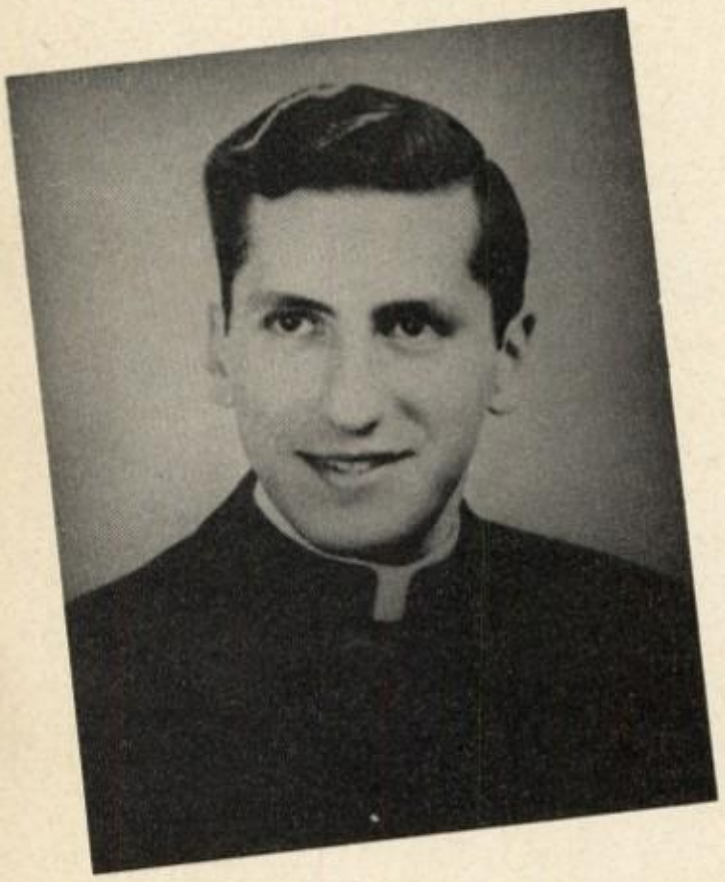
FATHER ALEX G. STREMEL

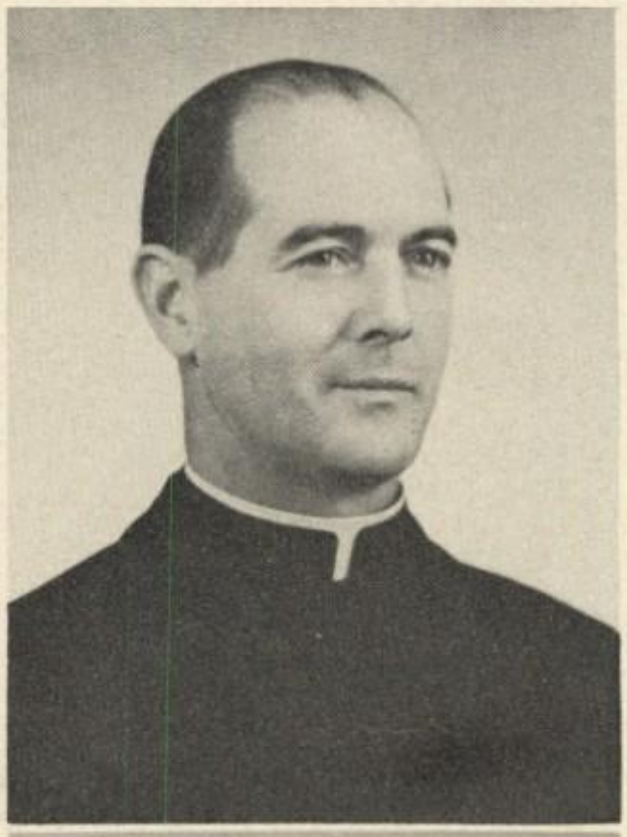
Father Stremel, our pastor and superintendent, has been with us only a short time, but these two years have been important ones for us. We sincerely appreciate your efforts to build St. Mary's into a bigger and better school. May God bless you in all your work.

FATHER ROBERT PEPE

Father Pepe just arrived in our diocese and parish a few months ago so we have a special welcome for him. Father has fixed himself firmly in our memories through his very active participation and guidance of our extra-curricular activities.



OUR PRIESTS



FATHER PATRICK HUGHES

Father Hughes has endeared himself to the students through his kindness and understanding. The members of the Activity Club wish to add a special "thank you" to him for sponsoring this program.

FATHER MARINO CALDARELLI

Father Caldarelli also rates a big welcome from the students of St. Mary's since he has just arrived at our parish. God bless you and all your priestly duties, Father.

SISTER M. PAULA, principal and commercial teacher at St. Mary's, consults with MR. SPIGARELLI, athletic coach and industrial arts instructor, and MRS. REGINA LENSKI McKENNA, vocal instructor.

SISTER M. CLARISSA, Senior class sponsor, and SISTER M. SIMEON, Junior class sponsor, go over their work in religion, art, and science.

And FACULTY

SISTER M. ROSALIA, Freshman class sponsor and English instructor, and SISTER M. LUCILLE, Sophomore class sponsor and home economics teacher, make plans for a coming interclass party.

SISTER M. LUCIANNA, music instructor, and SISTER M. de PAZZI, librarian, stop for a bit of conversation between periods in their busy day.

CLASS HISTORY

The fall of '47 found 24 little green Freshies hopefully and anxiously entering the Freshman room. There at the desk sat Sister M. Flavia, our homeroom teacher, who kept one corner of the room vacant for brightly colored bird houses. We found that high school had many things to teach us. The algebra class was one we found particularly different. Sister Clarissa, who taught the class, can verify that fact. Under the direction of Sister Linus, we learned to appreciate the Latin Language and Roman customs. Ted Lacina was chosen class president, with Rita Menghini as vice-president; Kathleen McKee as secretary; and Bob Rinehart as treasurer. When the Annual Contest came around, Kathleen and Ted were picked to represent the Freshman Class as King and Queen candidates. Five Boys went out for football--Deruy, Crespino, Lacina, Rinehart, and Yoakam. Kathleen was chosen by the squad as Football Queen Attendant. Out for basketball were Krumsick, Lacina, Rinehart, Garrison, Yaokam, and Crespino. The Freshmen did their share of entertaining that year, too. They put on the big Valentine's Dance.

Then came '48 and we were Sophomores. Sister M. Eva was the homeroom teacher of 22 students. We lost Jim Yaokam, who answered the call of the West and went to Wyoming. Also Dorothy Castagno went to California. John Deruy was class president; Jerry Cronister, vice-president; Jack Wilson, secretary; and Mary Margaret Tierney, treasurer. One interesting class that year, at least for the girls, was the cooking class. The senior boys across the hall in Chemistry class were on the receiving end of several kinds of pastries made by the girls.

Out for football were Krumsick, Crespino, Lacina, and Rinehart. Krumsick and Crespino were our lone representatives for basketball. Jerry Cronister and Freda Martinous were chosen candidates for Annual King and Queen from the Sophomores. Our social event that year was the successful Halloween Dance.

The year of 1950 found us on top floor as Juniors, under the guidance of Sister M. Paula. Our class consisted of 27 members. Jack Cattelino, Vera Rome, Al Regan, and Cecilia Radell were newcomers to our class. Jim Yoakam and Marilyn Manning returned once more. Our class officers were Kathleen McKee, president; Jack Cattelino, vice-president; Dona Zuech, secretary; and Bob Krumsick, treasurer. Kathleen was chosen to be one of the cheerleaders.

Out for football were Rinehart, Cronister, Lacina, Crespino, Krumsick, and Garrison. Kathleen was again chosen to be Football Queen Attendant. Our basketball representatives for the Juniors were Crespino, Krumsick and Yoakam. For Annual King and Queen candidates, John Deruy and Dona Zuech were the representatives for the Juniors. The St. Mary's Triple Trio was organized by some of the girls for the purpose of carolling at Christmas time for CARE packages. That year we originated the Mock Coronation Ball--our version of Sadie Hawkins Day. Our Valentine's Dance was very well attended. Spring found the Juniors preparing for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, which was carried out as an under-water theme, A Koral Kingdom.

Finally our Senior year began, with Sister M. Clarissa as our sponsor. The first of school found us proudly displaying our class rings. A short time later Sister Clarissa moved to another school, and Sister M. Rosalia took over the task of managing us.

That fall the Seniors took a couple of trips--one to Noel, Mo., and the other to Farlington Lake, with Father Pepe as chaperon.

Our leaders for the year were Bob Rinehart, president; Frank Crespino, vice-president; Agnes Horgan, secretary, and Ted Lacina, treasurer. John Deruy brought fame to the Senior Class by being chosen President of the Wichita Diocesan Sodality Council. Agnes Horgan represented our school in the Apologetics contest in Wichita. The school paper was successfully published under the co-editorship of Mary Colleen Ahrens and Rita Zigmund.

The Football Queen, chosen by the squad, was Jeanne Krumsick. The co-captains were Ted Lacina and Frank Crespino. Other Seniors on the team were Bob Krumsick, Don Garrison, Jerry Cronister, Jack Cattelino, and Bob Rinehart. Basketball season rolled around, with Bob Krumsick as captain. Don Garrison and Frank Crespino were the other Seniors on the team.

This year we sponsored the Christmas dance. The Triple Trio was again organized to carry on the Care Carolling.

We won the Annual contest, making Mary Margaret Tierney and Bob Krumsick Queen Marianette and King Marian Xi. They were crowned at the formal Coronation Ball held on January 19.

Our retreat, under the direction of the Rev. Joseph W. Buckley, S. M., was held the last week of January.

March brought the beginning practices of the Senior Play, "Dotty and Daffy", with Carol Frakes and Joan Starr in the leading roles. It was presented under the direction of Father Stremel on April 3 and 4. April found us under deep piles of books getting ready for the final exams, which were given early in May. May 21 was Class Night, which was followed by the Senior Trip to the Ozarks.

On Sunday morning, May 27, the Senior said their farewell to St. Mary's as students. Thus closed four important years in the history of the Class of 1951.
